Our Learning

We are deep into our fairy tales! We have started investigating fractured fairy tales and mapping them out. We will begin writing our own at the end of the month. These will be displayed during our Gifted Showcase in January!

Wish List

I would still appreciate about 3 more bath mats for the classrooms. The kids LOVE them. I am also looking for medium sized wooden boxes with lids.

Reminders

We are still working through our book study. Please be reading these at home each week. Students have a chapter each week. They can read it by themselves or with a parent.

3rd grade will have a 3-2-1 reflection sheet and 4th grade will answer the questions at the end.
